CHAMBERS Rosewood Vineyards Rutherglen

Winter Report - Stephen Chambers-6th Generation - Winemaker

In the Winery

Well vintage 2017 is done and dusted apart from some malo-lactic fermentation. What's next you ask; well...Andrew is assessing the 2016 Reds and pumping them out of barrel to be replaced by the 2017 Reds. The Durif and Shiraz look particularly strong.

Stephen is concentrating on the Dry Flor (Apera) barrels which are to be emptied and washed over the next couple of weeks. So we will soon have some fresh Dry Flor (Apera) for sampling and may in fact have the return of the Aged Dry flor. If that's not your thing we are also assessing and reworking all of the fortified wines.

In The Vineyard

Pruning is almost finished with only the vines which cuttings are to be taken from needing pruning and tying down. They are also preparing the ground for planting from the nursery, with varieties including Blue Imperial (Cinsault) and Gouais to be planted.

On The Farm

The lambs are getting bigger and are almost ready for market. A bit of rain wouldn't go astray to help the grass; and indirectly the lambs grow. Shearing is also coming up in September/October.

RECIPE

Revamp an Oldie
Rum Balls?
No...Muscat Balls!
