What's happening in the Winery

Well, vintage finished on 24th April with the picking of our Muscadelle. Overall, we are pretty happy with the quality of this year. Stephen Morina; our US vintage hand, has returned home with his sights firmly fixed on continuing his career in the wine industry. Tommaso Fedrizzi, our Italian vintage hand, finishes up on the 18th May and is going to travel the East coast of Australia for the following 3 weeks before travelling back to Italy. We are currently working with the 2018 Muscat and Muscadelle using the Cross Flow to filter the wines off lees (grape material sediment) prior to pumping them to cask for maturation. Also, preparing the 2018 Riesling and 2018 Rosé for bottling.

On the Farm

Out on the farm, the feed situation is looking pretty grim; whilst grape harvest was on, we didn't want rain, but now it is finished, we need it to have some grass grow before it gets too cold. We have had a little bit of rain over the last couple of weeks; however, it has more been to show that it can rain, rather than any real decent rainfall volume. We do have plenty of lambs running around, and it is now a case of constantly feeding with hay and grain to help the lambs grow and keep the ewes in good condition.

We even harvested some excess Muscadelle and fed it to the sheep.!!

2013 Shiraz

Stephen has just completed his latest tasting notes on this Dual Silver Medal Winner -Rutherglen Wine Show- 2015 & 2016

Vibrant purple red colour with aromas of Raspberry, blackberry and coconut.

The palate consists of soft and supple tannins which when combined with the fruit notes make a pleasant and enjoyable drink.
