From the Winemaker Stephen Chambers, 6th Generation MAY UPDATE

Stephen hard at it, as the grapes come in.

On the Farm

It's lambing time! Over the past month and a half the new season's lambs have been born. Therefore in conjunction with feeding hay and grain to the stock, we have been checking to ensure all the births are going smoothly. We have had some rain recently and there is a green tinge to be viewed in many of the paddocks. We still require follow up rain to help this grass grow before too many frosts and the ground gets too cold for growth.

In the Winery

Vintage has finished albeit a tad disappointing on the Muscadelle front, due to the lack of ripening. We are very happy with the overall quality of the wine, even with yields being lower than previous years. Both Sara and Arturo, our vintage interns, have left so it seems very quiet in the winery. Andrew is busy racking and blending the current vintage reds, whilst I am filtering the 2019 Muscats, as well as putting blends together. All this, as the rest of the staff pack orders and get ready for the Winery Walkabout in June.

Cheers from, Stephen and the Chambers Crew
