From the Winemaker Stephen Chambers, 6th Generation SUMMER UPDATE

In the winery:

Currently we are preparing the 2018 Reds and a couple of 2019 Whites for bottling in early December. This is following a couple of hectic weeks involving multiple bottlings of Rutherglen Muscat to fulfil orders for both export and domestic markets.

In the vineyard:

There hasn't been too much rain to speak of (we know that we are not the 'Lone Ranger' here). All things considered, the vines have been putting on plenty of fresh growth and are just completing flowering. The success of the flowering will determine the amount of grapes each vine will set. There is still a long way to go in the growing season.

On the farm:

All the sheep have been shorn and the wool has been sent off for auction. Much of the clip has been sold at this point. We have introduced the rams to the ewes for joining, including a new Stud Border Ram, as the previous ram unfortunately passed on prematurely.

Cheers from, Stephen and the Chambers Crew
